

This picture shows an open composting plant producing compost from Municipal Solid Waste in Madrid, Spain not long after the plant was constructed (c 1998). The plant operates in conjunction with the 30 MWe coarse RDF fired Waste to Energy plant. The compost plant is rated for 400 tn/day of organic waste. The aeration floor uses a fixed turning machine (centre picture) operating on rails. This is supplemented by a mobile windrow machine